

PROTEC SOLUTIONS WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

ProTec Solutions is committed to protecting your privacy and developing technology that gives you the most powerful and safe online experience. This Statement of Privacy applies to the ProTec Solutions website(s) and governs data collection and usage.

By using a ProTec Solutions website, you consent to the data practices described herein this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

ProTec Solutions collects personally identifiable information, such as your e-mail address, name, work address or telephone number.

There is also information about your computer hardware and software that is automatically collected by ProTec Solutions. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used by ProTec Solutions for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the ProTec Solutions Website.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through ProTec Solutions public message boards, this information may be collected and used by others. Note: ProTec Solutions does not read any of your private online communications.

ProTec Solutions encourages you to review the privacy statements of Websites you choose to link to and from so that you can understand how those websites collect, use and share your information. ProTec Solutions is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on websites outside of the ProTec Solutions and ProTec Solutions Group of websites.

Use of your Personal Information

ProTec Solutions collects and uses your personal information to operate the ProTec Solutions Website and deliver the services you have requested. ProTec Solutions also uses your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from ProTec Solutions. ProTec Solutions will not contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion of current services or of potential new services that may be offered. ProTec Solutions does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties.

ProTec Solutions may, from time to time, contact you about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. Your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is never given to any third party. In addition, ProTec Solutions will never share data with third parties for statistical analysis, or allow third parties to send you email or postal mail, or allow third parties to provide customer support. All third parties are prohibited from obtaining or using your personal information.

ProTec Solutions does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without your explicit consent.

ProTec Solutions keeps track of the Websites and pages our customers visit within ProTec Solutions, in order to determine what ProTec Solutions services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within ProTec Solutions to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

ProTec Solutions Websites will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on ProTec Solutions or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of ProTec Solutions; and, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of ProTec Solutions, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The ProTec Solutions Website use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a Web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize ProTec Solutions pages, or register with ProTec Solutions site or services, a cookie helps ProTec Solutions to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same ProTec Solutions Website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the ProTec Solutions features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the ProTec Solutions services or Websites you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

ProTec Solutions secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. ProTec Solutions secures the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. When personal information is entered, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol.

Changes to this Statement

ProTec Solutions will occasionally update this Statement of Privacy to reflect company and customer feedback. ProTec Solutions encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how ProTec Solutions is protecting your information.

Contact Information

ProTec Solutions welcomes your comments regarding this Statement of Privacy. If you believe that ProTec Solutions has not adhered to this Statement, please contact ProTec Solutions at (855) 570-4112. We will use all reasonable efforts to promptly determine and remedy the problem.
